The following Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 29th July, 1974:—

BILL No. XXVII OF 1974

A Bill further to amend the National Cadet Corps Act, 1948.

“(3) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 12 of the National Cadet Corps Act, 1948 empowers the Central Government to appoint a Central Advisory Committee to advise it on all matters of policy connected with the constitution and administration of the National Cadet Corps. Under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of this section, two of the members of the Committee are to be elected by the House of the People and one by the Council of States annually. The Committee on Subordinate Legislation (Second Lok Sabha) recommended in their Third Report that this provision relating to election of Members of Parliament should be suitably amended to provide that the representatives of Parliament on the Central Advisory Committee would cease to be members thereof, if they cease to be Members of the House by which they are elected. This recommendation was accepted by Government and has been followed in actual practice all along. However, as no other amendments were considered necessary, no action was taken to amend the Act. The Lok Sabha Committee on Subordinate Legislation went into the matter again recently and an assurance was given to the Committee in February, 1974 that legislation for implementing the recommendation of the Committee would be undertaken in the Monsoon Session. Hence this Bill.

2. Opportunity is being availed of to amend section 13 of the Act to incorporate therein the standard provision relating to laying of rules.

The 22nd July, 1974.
